

Dr. Mehmet Oz describes ENERGY MEDICINE as "the next big frontier in medicine" ...
It's time to bring Energy Medicine into your life and practice!

Eden Energy Medicine Foundations Program San Diego Regional Course with Ellen Meredith, DA, EEM-AP

What is Energy Medicine? Energy medicine promotes the body's successful functioning: healing, vitality, and wellness. It focusses on the bio-energy systems that create and support good health. Energy Medicine allows you to harness the body's own wisdom and healing -- it is a profoundly effective approach and is accessible to all.

Eden Energy Medicine offers you a well-developed curriculum in Energy Medicine that can be integrated into your personal or professional health care practice. The Foundations Program provides an intensive course in Energy Anatomy and key techniques for influencing the body's energy systems. Using tools developed by Donna Eden, a pioneer in health care, and rooted in diverse healing traditions (especially Chinese Medicine), Eden Energy Medicine is an amazing gift to give yourself and those you wish to help!
